Fast. Shareable. Verifiable.

Provide your graduates the format they prefer and a single place to manage all of their academic credentials.

GO DIGITAL!

It's a digital world, and the portability of a digital certificate or diploma gives graduates a secure and verifiable way to share their success.

A SINGLE STUDENT EXPERIENCE

With the Credential Profile, students can collect, order and share their digital diplomas and certificates along side their transcripts. A seamless experience for working with the credentials they earn is a benefit your graduates deserve.

INCREASING MARKETABILITY

Help students promote themselves on with employers on LinkedIn.

71% of students said digital credentials boost their marketability

2015 study of 550 recent graduates

“This is so much better than just having people look at your diploma on a wall of your house. This way hundreds of people can see our diploma vs a handful.”

Parchment Award is part of the comprehensive digital credentials management platform designed help you turn credentials into opportunities.
